

CoMPaSS

Communicating Medicine in Palliative Situations

The conversations every doctor remembers Learn how to have them well

A one-day immersive simulation course designed to build confidence in communicating with patients and families facing serious illness, deterioration and end-of-life care.

2026 Course Dates
Friday 23 October
Friday 4 December
09:00–16:00

The Wilkes Institute at St Luke's Hospice

£275

Includes lunch and course materials

Who is it for?

Internal Medicine Trainees
Foundation Year 2 Doctors
Core Surgical, ACCS & Anaesthetic Trainees
Junior Clinical Fellows
Staff Grade Doctors
International Medical Graduates

What you'll gain:

Greater confidence in difficult conversations
Realistic simulation with professional patient actors
Expert feedback in a supportive learning environment
Skills you'll use throughout your clinical career

Scan to book
and view full course information

